

Quebec Staycation Guide: Sutton, Eastern Townships

Sutton is a quintessential autumn escape in Quebec’s Eastern Townships, blending French-inspired village charm with spectacular natural beauty. Surrounded by rolling hills, forests, and vineyards, the town offers both outdoor adventure and cozy cultural experiences. Mont Sutton provides panoramic vistas of brilliant fall colours, perfect for photography, hiking, or simply breathing in the crisp mountain air.

The nearby Wine Route showcases charming vineyards and cideries where visitors can enjoy tastings of local products, while Sutton’s cafés, bistros, and boutique shops provide inviting spots to relax and soak up the season.

Autumn in Sutton is ideal for couples, families, or solo travellers seeking a mix of scenic exploration and small-town comfort. The village comes alive with harvest festivities and local events that highlight the region’s bounty.

Highlights

- Panoramic fall views from Mont Sutton.
- Wine route and cider tasting at local vineyards.
- Charming village streets with cafés and boutiques.

Suggested Itinerary (2-3 Days)

Day 1

- » Arrive and explore the village cafés and shops.
- » Evening vineyard or cider tasting.

Day 2

- » Hike Mont Sutton or take the chairlift for autumn views.
- » Picnic at a scenic lookout.
- » Dinner at a bistro.

Day 3

- » Scenic drive along the Wine Route through Dunham and Frelighsburg.
- » Visit local farm stands.

Seasonal Tips

- Best time to visit: late September to mid-October.
- Pack layers for changing mountain weather.
- Arrive at vineyards early for tastings.

Notes

